

"NICOLAE BĂLCESCU" LAND FORCES ACADEMY
OF SIBIU, ROMANIA
COMMANDANT (RECTOR) OFFICE

To Mihnea Cosmin COSTOIU

Rector of the University Politehnica of Bucharest

Dear rector,

On behalf of the academic community of "Nicolae Bălcescu" Land Forces Academy, Romanian Academy of Scientists (AOSR) - Military Section, "Titu Maiorescu" University and National Institute of Aerospace Research, I am pleased to invite you to participate in the 2nd Edition of The International Scientific Conference "Emerging and Disruptive Technologies' Impact on Global Security".

This scientific event brings to the participants' attention new ideas and approaches related to the topic of emerging and disruptive technologies and their impact on global security, offering the opportunity to share experience and scientific results in the academic and research environment, nationally and internationally.

The conference will take place in a hybrid format (onsite and online) at "Nicolae Bălcescu" Land Forces Academy of Sibiu, between November 24 - 25, 2022.

Please find details about the conference at the link below https://www.armyacademy.ro/engleza/conference_EDTIGS.php.

We would be honored by your participation!

Yours sincerely,

BG. Prof. Eng. GHIȚĂ BÂRSAN, PhD
